ABOUT THE CAMPGROUND

The most frequently asked question is "What is the Battenkill?" The Battenkill is the name of the trout stream on which the campground is located. Batten means luxurious living, and Kill is the Dutch word for river.

Within the 35 acres of the campground:

- 48 sites in hardwoods
- 37 in a partially wooded area
- 18 in our meadow
- Generously spaced graveled sites for tents as well as RVs
- Basic tent sites no hook-ups extra charge for a water/electric site
- Trailer sites water/electric or water/electric/sewer hookups
- Sites located on the river are prime sites and are booked in July & August for week
- Group camping is available in our field area
- No motor cycles, mini bikes or mopeds are allowed beyond the office
- Two centrally located comfort stations feature flush toilets, sinks and hot showers
- Other services- dumping station, firewood, ice, t-shirts at campground store.
- Swimming in natural swimming area where the water is clear and refreshing, bring your own tubes or canoes
